

Dear donor,

Midwinter time is already behind us. On some parts of ourselves we have already been born, on other parts we are still on our way. Just like nature.

Of course, this also applies to us and the work we do for the foundation.

Substantive and financial annual report

Attached you will find the substantive and financial annual report.

We would like to thank Marcel Munier, our accountant, for the precise and selfless control of the accounts for years.

Retiring and incoming board members

According to the foundation's articles of association, the directors must resign every two years.

We did that in March, as a formality, because the three of us would like to continue. So, we resigned and took office again.

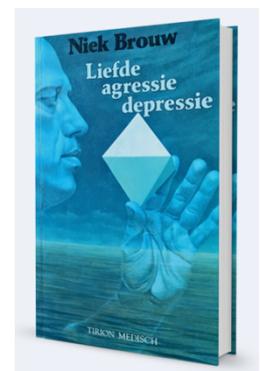

This will be discussed again in 2026.

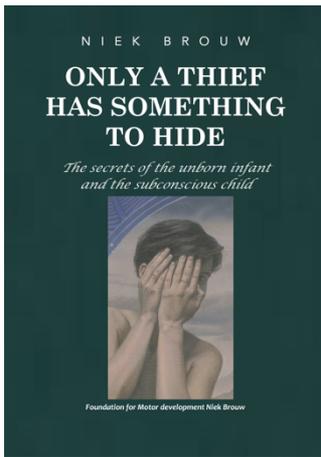

Love aggression depression 6th edition.

Our stock of the booklet Love Aggression Depression in Dutch has almost run out. There is still regular demand for it, so we have decided to issue a new edition.

There was no longer an original version of the text, so it had to be retyped. That we have it done by a professional.

We have already made some progress in looking at the font, the size, the cover, and the endpaper. Once those decisions have been made, they are presented to Niek and Martine and then we have a few copies printed.

Translation 'Hiding is something only a thief does' in English.

The book is still being worked on.

We will probably be able to tell you more about this project in the next newsletter, early this summer.

See you then and kind regards,

Valerie van Burk, Mim van der Meij and Rens Looij
